Need a Retreat?

What a great time of year to take care of your spiritual health! Many in our diocese have attended Cursillo weekends over the years and give great testimony to the power of such weekends. Cursillo (Ker-SEE-o) means a short course in Christianity.

Weekends, at Sand Hill Bible Camp just south of Fosston, include quiet time, inspirational talks, and time to be with Jesus without the many distractions of daily life. Grow closer to Jesus by taking the time to join us. HE will bless your sacrifice of time for HIM.

Each weekend runs Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon. A fall retreat for Men will be held September 28 - October 1 and for Women October 26-29. A spring retreat for Men will be February 22-25, 2018 and for Women, March 15-18, 2018.

Contact Carol Olsonawski (218-689-9081) or Bobbi Mercil (701-866-5706) for more information. Applications found at crookstoncursillo.weebly.com.

Out of the Office

This coming week is the next session of "Good Leaders, Good Shepherds." As I have mentioned previously this program is designed to help foster and develop pastoral leadership at both the diocesan and parish level, as well as priestly fraternity throughout the diocese. I will be out of the office from after our last Mass for the Feast of the Assumption on Tuesday evening until Friday evening. Please do keep me and all of the priests of the diocese in your prayers as we take part in this program and do know that you will be in my prayers.

This Week's Mass Prayers for Contemplation 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Collect

Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance which you have promised.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Prayer over the Offerings

Be pleased, O Lord, to accept the offerings of your Church, for in your mercy you have given them to be offered and by your power you transform them into the mystery of our salvation.

Through Christ our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

May the communion in your Sacrament that we have consumed, save us, O Lord, and confirm us in the light of your truth. Through Christ our Lord

Catholic Q&A: The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

By Fr. Rick Poblocki

When was the Dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary declared by the Church?

The Dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was solemnly defined and declared by Pope Pius XII on Nov. 1, 1950.

What is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary?

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is “the Dogma which recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary’s singular participation in her Son’s Resurrection by which she was taken Body and Soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, Glossary, p. 867).

How did the celebration of the Assumption come about in the Catholic Church?

A very simplified “history” of the Church’s celebration of the Assumption goes like this:

- As early as 451 AD, the cycle of readings used by the Armenian Church shows evidence of a Feast honoring Our Lady’s exaltation in heaven after her life on earth closes.
- In 602 AD, the Emperor Maurice established throughout the entire Roman Empire, a celebration that commemorated Our Lady’s passage from this world. “The Feast of the Dormition of *Mary,” as it was known in the East, would eventually come to be known in the Latin Rite (Roman Catholic) of the Church as “The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.” It should be noted that at this time in both the Church and the Roman Empire, the Feast of the Theotokos (pronounced Thay-yo-toke-kos, which means, “Mother of God”) was already an established celebration. The Pausation (Assumption of Mary) was celebrated along with these other “ancient” Marian Feasts: the Purification (February 2), the Annunciation (March 25), and the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (September 8).*

- By 687-701 AD, the Feast of the Assumption was being celebrated in Rome by Pope Sergius – at that time the Assumption was known by the name Pausatio (pronounced pow-sot-see-yo).
- It was not until the 8th century that the Feast was given the title “The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary” in the Gregorian Sacramentally. Key features of the celebration at the time included: a night procession from the Church of St. Adrian to St. Mary Major in Rome; there was a vigil and fasting, and a special Collect (opening prayer) was used from this time all the way up until 1566.
- On November 1, 1950, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was solemnly defined as dogma of the Catholic Church by Pope Pius XII.

The phrase “at the completion of her life on earth” is often used; did Our Lady die?

When Pope Pius XII defined the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, he deliberately did not define whether Our Lady died before her assumption, or if she was simply carried up into heaven from the earth while she was still alive. Those who believe that Our Lady died are called mortalists, and those who believe she didn’t die are called immortalists. Eminent thinkers like St. John Paul II suggest that it was most appropriate that Our Lady died in order that she would be in perfect conformity with her Son. Tradition does seem to favor the opinion that Our Lady died. Both Jerusalem and Ephesus (a city in present-day Turkey) both claim to be where she spent her last days on earth.
