19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!” (1 KINGS 19:7)

Jesus knows that our stewardship journey will be difficult; we are not designed to do it on our own. Fortunately, Jesus gave us the greatest gift of all – the gift of the Eucharist; His own body and blood. When we join our sacrifices with the sacrifice of the Mass, we find the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

DAA Summer Appeal

Next week you will receive a Summer Appeal envelope in your mailbox. If you have not yet done so, it isn't too late to support our seminarians and all the work of the Church by offering a gift to the Diocesan Annual Appeal. We must remember.....

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”

Adoration Moment

"Our age needs to rediscover the fruitfulness of silence, in order to overcome the dissipation of sounds, images and chatter that too often prevent the voice of God from being heard."

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

POPE FRANCIS, Angelus Address August 15, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Good morning and Happy Feast of Our Lady, Today the Church is celebrating one of the most important feasts dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary: the Feast of her Assumption. At the end of her earthly life, the Mother of Christ was assumed body and soul to Heaven, that is to say, into the glory of eternal life, in full communion with God.

Today's page of the Gospel (Lk 1:39-56) presents to us Mary who, just after conceiving Jesus through the work of the Holy Spirit, goes to visit her elderly relative Elizabeth, who is also miraculously expecting a child. In this meeting filled with the Holy Spirit, Mary expresses her joy with the Cantic of the Magnificat, because she has become fully aware of the meaning of the great things that are being accomplished in her life: through her, all that her people were expecting is brought to fulfillment.

But the Gospel also shows us the truest cause of Mary's greatness and her blessedness: the cause is faith. Indeed, Elizabeth greets her with these words: "blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord" (Lk 1:45). Faith is the heart of Mary's whole story: she is the believer, the great believer; she knows — and she says so — that historically the violence of the powerful, the pride of the rich, the arrogance of the proud are burdensome. However, Mary believes and proclaims that God does not leave his humble and poor children alone, but helps them with mercy, with care, overthrowing the mighty from their thrones, scattering the proud in the machinations of their hearts. This is the faith of our Mother, this is the faith of Mary!

The Cantic of Our Lady also enables us to grasp the full meaning of Mary's life: as the mercy of the Lord is the driving force of history, then she could not "know the corruption of the sepulchre, she who begot the Lord of life" (cf. Preface). All this is not only about Mary. The "great things" done in her by the Almighty touch us deeply, speak to us of our journey in life, remind us of the destination that awaits us: our Father's house. Our life, seen in the light of Mary assumed into Heaven, is not a meaningless wandering, but is a pilgrimage which, while with all its uncertainty and suffering, has a sure destination: our Father's house, who awaits us with love. It is beautiful to consider this: that we have a Father who waits for us with love, and that our Mother Mary is also up there and waiting for us with love.

Meanwhile, as life goes by, God makes shine "for his pilgrim people on earth, a sign of comfort and sure hope" (cf. ibid.). That sign has a face, that sign has a name: the luminous face of the Mother of the Lord, the blessed name of Mary, full of grace, for she believed in the word of the Lord: the great believer! As members of the Church, we are destined to share our Mother's glory, because, thanks be to God, we too believe in Christ's sacrifice on the Cross and, through Baptism, we were incorporated into that mystery of salvation.

Today let us all pray together, as our journey on this earth unfolds, that she turn her merciful eyes to us, light the way, point us toward the destination, and show us after Jesus' exile, the blessed fruit of her womb. And let us say together: O clement, O pious, O sweet Virgin Mary!
