31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” (MARK 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

National Vocation Awareness Week

National Vocation Awareness Week is the first full week of November. The purpose of this week is to promote vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, along with renewing prayer and support for those considering one of these vocations.

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care.

Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the gospel by lives of dedicated love.

Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening."

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

MORE INFORMATION

If you have questions about the seminary or vocational discernment, please contact your local pastor or Father Matt Schmitz, Promoter of Vocations, at mschmitz@sacredheartgf.net or 218-773-0877.

DIOCESE SEEKS TO BUILD SEMINARIAN ENDOWMENT

The Seminarian Education Endowment is a group of 168 burses gifted to the Diocese of Crookston Catholic Community Foundation (CCF) for educating seminarians.

Two years ago, the office of Stewardship and Development and CCF entered into a soft campaign, meeting with potential donors and parishes about building up the Seminarian Education Endowment which currently has $2.5 million invested. It needs to be at $5 million to fully fund projected expenses for our seminarians' education. Currently much funding for seminarians comes from the Diocesan Annual Appeal and assessments to parishes.

There are two reasons why this initiative is critical for all of us. First, the thing that threatens the future of many parishes is not the ability to care for itself financially or to keep buildings in good repair. Church buildings have been carefully cared for by pastors, volunteers and professionals keeping them in excellent condition. What threatens the future of our beloved parishes is the availability of a priest. Presently, nearly every priest in the diocese has more than one parish or ministry to attend to. Bishop Michael J. Hoepfner says we need to give every young man who hears the voice of God an opportunity to discern a call to the priesthood. This means being able to support that young man during seminary.

Second, building up the seminarian education endowment takes pressure off the diocesan budget, avoiding raises in Diocesan Annual Appeal goals and parish assessments. This takes pressure off parish budgets. Burses are never spent but are invested conservatively in funds that are harmonious with Catholic social principals. Interest from the investments is used exclusively for books, tuition, room and board for seminarians and for the expenses incurred by the Office of Vocations. When the endowment is at $5 million, we should be able to fully fund those expenses with the interest.

Please contact Joe Noel, Executive Director of the Catholic Community Foundation at jnoel@crookston.org or 218-280-6858 for more information.
