"...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.

From a Memorial Day homily by Most Rev. José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

We remember this day all those who have given their lives to defend the truths that our great nation holds to be self-evident. The truth that all men and women are created equal. The truth that we are all children of one God, endowed by our Creator with inalienable rights—to life, to liberty and to the pursuit of happiness.

The men and women we remember today died defending these truths. They died in fields of war for you and for me—so that we could gather on this sunny morning in peace and in freedom.

We owe them a great debt for their self-sacrifice, for their love.

Jesus said that there is no greater love than to lay down your life for a friend. The men and women we remember today were people of great love.

Memorial Day is a day of remembrance. It is also a day to keep alive the life and memory of so many men and women, who unselfishly gave their lives for our country. They were not thinking about themselves as they went off to fight for their country. They were thinking about their families. They were thinking about the ideals of this country and their duty as faithful citizens.

These brave men and women trusted in God. They made God their refuge and fortress. And we know that our God is the God of the living. And we know that if we have died with Christ in baptism, so we shall live with him in the resurrection. So we ask our good God today raise up in joy all those who have died in our Armed Forces.

We are living in a time, my brothers and sisters, when unfortunately, our nation is at war in several places.

So we also pray for all those men and women who are serving our country and are in harm's way today. We pray for wisdom for our leaders and for integrity for our citizens. We pray for the innocent victims of war. And we pray for a just and lasting peace—for our nation and for every other nation, through the mercy of Jesus Christ our Lord
