June 9, 2019 Pentecost Sunday

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

Parish Council

The Parish Pastoral Council met June 3, 2019. Present at the meeting were Fr. Andrew Obel, council members, Lynn Erickson, Mary Marvin, Andrew Dignan, Nancy Ellenson, Bruce Beisel and Lois Thiessen. Also present were Deacon James Lukenbill and parish secretary Jennifer Hilligoss who were attending as information resources. Absent was council member Eileen Paquin.

Father opened with prayer. Deacon Jim explained the structure and purposes of the Parish Pastoral and Finance Councils and Corporate Board.

All members present agreed to extend their terms one year.

Lynn will serve as chairperson and Lois as secretary.

The Corporate Authorization Resolution document was filled out for Reverend Andrew Obel and Deacon James Lukenbill to have signature authority of parish accounts. Cemetery matters will be addressed by the finance council. Father will meet with them soon.

Father will be installed by Bishop Hoepfner June 22 at 6:00 mass. That will be followed by a potluck supper, members of Sacred Heart and St. Joseph will be invited. June 18 will be the next meeting. Deacon closed with prayer.

Submitted by Lois Thiessen, Secretary.

Dear Friends.

Thank you for welcoming me to St. Mary's, St. Joseph's and Sacred Heart parishes last weekend. I am happy and excited to be part of your Catholic communities. The few days I have been here, you have all made me feel at home here in Northern Minnesota. Thank you for making me feel at home while away from home!

I would like to congratulate Deacon Jim Lukenbill for being appointed by Bishop Hoeppner as the deacon for all the three parishes of St. Mary's, Warroad, St. Joseph's, Williams and Sacred Heart, Baudette. Although Deacon Jim has already been ministering in all the three parishes, his official appointment was only for St. Joseph's and Sacred Heart parishes. Now he is officially appointed as the deacon for all the three parishes.

I will be away this week from Sunday afternoon, June 9th to Thursday, June 13th. I will be attending the annual priests' retreat for the priests of the diocese of Crookston taking place in Fair Hills Resort in Detroit Lakes, MN. Pray for us to have a fruitful retreat as we shall also pray for you.

Now, a word of self-introduction. I was born 45 years ago on October 10, 1973, in Uganda, East Africa. I am the youngest of eight children: four boys and four girls. My father and two siblings are now deceased. My 90-year-old mother has thirty-three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. I come from a very devout Catholic family including one maternal uncle who is a priest and one maternal aunt who is a nun.

I had my priestly formation right from the junior preparatory seminary at the age of fifteen. After completing college Seminary in Uganda, I was asked by my bishop to go to Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, LA, where I completed my theological studies. I was ordained a deacon on January 24, 2004 at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans and a priest six months later on July 3, 2004, at Uganda Martyrs' Cathedral in Tororo, Uganda.

I worked in different parishes and in different capacities in my home Archdiocese of Tororo. In 2009, I joined a graduate program in Canon Law at St. Paul University in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, where I graduated with a licentiate in Canon Law in December 2011. In 2012, I came to Crookston Diocese for a pastoral experience and was assigned to Sacred Heart Parish in East Grand Forks. After one year in East Grand Forks, I was assigned to St. Bernard Parish in Thief River Falls for another one year. I then decided to return to Ottawa in 2014 to pursue a doctorate degree in Canon Law. In December 2016, soon after completing writing my doctoral dissertation, I returned to Crookston Diocese and was assigned as an associate priest in Holy Rosary, Detroit Lakes, where I have been working until my recent appointment to Warroad, Williams and Baudette.

I am happy to be part of your parish communities and I look forward to serving you and getting to know all of you more.

God bless you all!

Fr. Andrew
