Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,

and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment

receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

4th Sunday of Lent

*"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."
(1 Samuel 16:7)*

How often do we invest our time, talent, and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent, and treasure here on earth.

Let us ask the intercession of our Dear Mother Mary, Health of the Sick. I invite you to make good use of the following prayer, adapted with the help of Fr. Augie Gothman from the Mass in her honor:

O Mary, Health of the Sick who shared in the joys and sorrows of your Son,
And merited in a wonderful way a special share in the mystery of pain;

You shine radiantly as a sign of health, of healing,
and of divine hope for the sick who call on you.

You are the model of perfect acceptance of God's will and of wholehearted conformity with Christ who endured our weakness and bore our sufferings because of his infinite love for us.

Intercede for us and for all who suffer, grant health to all the sick.

In your motherly concern, present our cares to your Son who is our Savior and always rises to help us whatever our troubles.

Pray, Dear Mother, that we be strengthened in all our sorrows in this life and be given a share in the everlasting joy in heaven where we hope to see you and your Son,

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

Eyesight to the Blind: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Readings:

1 Samuel 16:1, 6–7, 10–13

Psalm 23:1–6

Ephesians 5:8–14

John 9:1–41

God’s ways of seeing are not our ways, we hear in today’s First Reading. Jesus illustrates this in the Gospel—as the blind man comes to see and the Pharisees are made blind.

The blind man stands for all humanity. “Born totally in sin” he is made a new creation by the saving power of Christ.

As God fashioned the first man from the clay of the earth (see Genesis 2:7), Jesus gives the blind man new life by anointing his eyes with clay (see John 9:11). As God breathed the spirit of life into the first man, the blind man is not healed until he washes in the waters of Siloam, a name that means “sent.”

Jesus is the One “sent” by the Father to do the Father’s will (see John 9:4; 12:44). He is the new source of life-giving water—the Holy Spirit who rushes upon us in Baptism (see John 4:10; 7:38–39).

This is the Spirit that rushes upon God’s chosen king David in today’s First Reading. A shepherd like Moses before him (see Exodus 3:1; Psalm 78:70–71), David is also a sign pointing to the good shepherd and king to come—Jesus (see John 10:11).

The Lord is our shepherd, as we sing in today’s Psalm. By His death and Resurrection He has made a path for us through the dark valley of sin and death, leading us to the verdant pastures of the kingdom of life, the Church.

In the restful waters of Baptism He has refreshed our souls. He has anointed our heads with the oil of Confirmation and spread the Eucharistic table before us, filling our cups to overflowing.

With the once-blind man we enter His house to give God the praise, to renew our vow: “I do believe, Lord.”

“The Lord looks into the heart,” we hear today. Let Him find us, as Paul advises in today’s Epistle, living as “children of light”—trying always to learn what is pleasing to our Father.
