19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!” I KINGS 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

St. Mary's

Religious Education:

Vacation Bible School was a HUGE success! We had over 35 kids attend and 25 volunteers help out. We sang, danced, did crafts, played games, and taught the children that they are priceless treasures. It was a blessing to see all of their smiling faces throughout the event. It wouldn't have been possible without the help of countless people. I would like to take some time to thank everyone who helped make it a success. Thank you to the church staff for all of your help and support, to the volunteers who showed up each night, to the parents and children for their faith in God, and to you, those who prayed, brought cookies, or gave a donations to make all of this possible for our St. Mary's kids. Grace and Blessings, Jennifer Rose

Religious Education online registration is open for the 2021-2022 school year, please go to, <https://stmarysward.org/2021-2022-re-registration> to register your child today. If you would like to play a role in the lives of our St. Mary's children please contact Jennifer at 701-741-0695. We would love to have you help out.

Take and Eat: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:4-8

Psalm 34:2-9

Ephesians 4:30-5:2

John 6:41-51

Sometimes we feel like Elijah in today's First Reading. We want to lie down and die, keenly aware of our failures—that we seem to be getting no better at doing what God wants of us.

We can be tempted to despair, as the prophet was on his forty-day journey in the desert. We can be tempted to “murmur” against God, as the Israelites did during their forty years in the desert (see Exodus 16:2, 7, 8; 1 Corinthians 10:10).

The Gospel today uses the same word, “murmur,” to describe the crowds, who reenact Israel's hardheartedness in the desert.

Jesus tells them that prophecies are being fulfilled in Him, that they are being taught by God. But they can't believe it. They can only see His flesh, that He is the “son” of Joseph and Mary.

Yet if we believe, if we seek Him in our distress, He will deliver us from our fears, as we sing in today's Psalm.

At the altar in every Eucharist, the angel of the Lord, the Lord himself (see Exodus 3:1–2), touches us. He commands us to take and eat His Flesh given for the life of the world (see Matthew 26:26).

This taste of the heavenly gift (see Hebrews 6:4–5) comes to us with a renewed command—to get up and continue on the journey we began in Baptism to the mountain of God, the kingdom of heaven. He will give us the bread of life, the strength and grace we need—as He fed our spiritual ancestors in the wilderness and Elijah in the desert.

So let us stop grieving the Spirit of God, as Paul says in today's Epistle, in another reference to Israel in the desert (see Isaiah 63:10).

Let us say to God as Elijah did, “Take my life.” Not in the sense of wanting to die but in giving ourselves as a sacrificial offering—loving Him as He has loved us, on the Cross and in the Eucharist.
