St. Mary's will be participating in a parish survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! This is a different survey than the previous survey our parish held over the summer. Please be sure to read more about it in next week's Bulletin.

PieceMakers Prayer Quilt Ministry is still active and making prayer quilts for those in need. If someone you know could use a Prayer Quilt, contact Barb Kotta. You only need to do two things:

1. Get their permission (HIPPA laws require this);
2. Find out what they would like prayers for (healing, strength, peace, etc.).

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” MARK 9:41 We are made in God’s image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generosity become easier. Why? Because that’s the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.

Religious Education News

Religious Education will begin Wed. Oct. 6th, we look forward to the return of our students and pray for a healthy, happy & holy school year. We will have more information to come in next week’s bulletin. Keep up to date with our parish news and events by following us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/WarroadCatholic/> or check out our website: <https://stmaryswarroad.org/>

Please do consider being a volunteer for our youth, we can use all the help we can get, and what a beautiful way to show the love of the Lord than by volunteering your time to serving others. Here is a link to the first steps of signing up:

<https://stmaryswarroad.org/re-volunteers>, follow the instructions and if you need help, feel free to contact Terrie Lynn or Jennifer Rose in the parish office.

If you have not yet signed your child/children up for Religious Ed please do so online at our website: <https://stmaryswarroad.org/2021-2022-re-registration>

Readings:

Numbers 11:25–29

Psalm 19:8,10,12–14

James 5:1–6

Mark 9:38–48

Today's Gospel begins with a scene that recalls a similar moment in the history of Israel, the episode recalled in today's First Reading. The seventy elders who receive God's Spirit through Moses prefigure the ministry of the Apostles.

Like Joshua in the First Reading, John makes the mistake of presuming that only a select few are inspired and entrusted to carry out God's plans. The Spirit blows where it wills (see John 3:8), and God desires to bestow His Spirit on all the people of God in every nation under heaven (see Acts 2:5, 38).

God can and will work mighty deeds through the most unexpected and unlikely people. All of us are called to perform even our most humble tasks, such as giving a cup of water, for the sake of His name and the cause of His kingdom.

John believes he is protecting the purity of the Lord's name. But, really, he's only guarding his own privilege and status. It's telling that the Apostles want to shut down the ministry of an exorcist. Authority to drive out demons and unclean spirits was one of the specific powers entrusted to the Twelve (see Mark 3:14–15; 6:7, 13).

Cleanse me from my unknown faults, we pray in today's Psalm. Often, like Joshua and John, perhaps without noticing it, we cloak our failings and fears under the guise of our desire to defend Christ or the Church.

But as Jesus says today, instead of worrying about who is a real Christian and who is not, we should make sure that we ourselves are leading lives worthy of our calling as disciples (see Ephesians 1:4).

Does the advice we give, or the example of our actions, give scandal—causing others to doubt or lose faith? Do we do what we do with mixed motives instead of seeking only the Father's will? Are we living, as this Sunday's Epistle warns, for our own luxury and pleasure while neglecting our neighbors?

We need to keep meditating on His Law, as we sing in today's Psalm. We need to pray for the grace to detect our failings and to overcome them.
