Thirty Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” (Mark 13:26)
We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Religious Education

The Parish Finance Council has hired Ashley Stoskopf to assist Fr. Andrew and Terrie Lynn in coordinating Faith Formation Program. Fr. Andrew will remain as the coordinator of the program and Ashley will serve as assistant coordinator beginning Monday, November 15th. We thank Ashley for offering to serve our parish in this role.

Summary of Parish Pastoral Council Meeting

The council met November 2. Present were Fr. Andrew Obel, council members, Lynn Erickson, Lois Thiessen, Andrew Dignan, Nancy Ellenson and Bruce Beisel and trustee Harold Thiessen. Absent was Mary Marvin.

The Going Forth as Disciples survey was open Oct. 9 to Nov. 1. Over 50 responses were registered for our three parishes.

Sign up for liturgical ministry training will be in November. Fund raising for the baptismal font will be November 6 thru Jan. 9, 2022. The font will match our sanctuary furnishings. Fr. Andrew will send a letter. We have $15,000 of the $28,000 needed.

Pastoral council member nominations and election will be in November.

Mass of Light will be November 22 at 6:30.

A Giving Tree project will be a parish-wide activity in November-December.

The kick-off mass and event for religious education year was well attended. Classes begin Nov 3.

Ten youth attended the Middle School Rally Oct 21.

A volunteer is helping father with his Faith Formation Coordinator tasks.

Mass schedule for Christmas and that weekend has not been finalized.

New Bishop Andrew Cozzens will be installed Dec 6.

Next council meeting will be Dec 2. Submitted by Lois Thiessen, PPC Secretary

SMMA

On November 27 and 28 we will be taking our annual St. Mary’s Mission Appeal collection. Over one thousand donors from the Diocese of Crookston year after year offer support to the work we do at the Mission. One hundred nineteen children are enrolled this year and are receiving a quality education, formation in life skills and Catholic values and a chance at a bright future. Please give generously.

Watch the SMMA video and donate online at www.crookston.org/smma

Turkey Bingo at St. Mary’s
7:30pm on November 20th.
Come join in the fun.

Knights of Columbus are looking for HS volunteers who will help with concessions and Bingo on Saturday November 20th. A great way to earn Community Service Hours. If interested, please contact Rosta Hruby@ 218-242-6992

Mass intentions can be placed by touching base with Terrie Lynn in the office, stmarys2@mncabl.net or simply by writing them on a paper and mailing them to St. Mary’s, P.O. box 33 Warroad.

Hope in Tribulation: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Daniel 12:1-3

Psalms 16:5,8-11

Hebrews 10:11-14,18

Mark 13:24-32

In this, the second-to-last week of the Church year, Jesus has finally made it to Jerusalem.

Near to His passion and death, He gives us a teaching of hope—telling us how it will be when He returns again in glory.

Today's Gospel is taken from the end of a long discourse in which He describes tribulations the likes of which haven't been seen "since the beginning of God's creation" (see Mark 13:9). He describes what amounts to a dissolution of God's creation, a "devolution" of the world to its original state of formlessness and void.

First, human community—nations and kingdoms—will break down (see Mark 13:7–8). Then the earth will stop yielding food and begin to shake apart (13:8). Next, the family will be torn apart from within and the last faithful individuals will be persecuted (13:9–13). Finally, the Temple will be desecrated, the earth emptied of God's presence (13:14).

In today's reading, God is described putting out the lights that He established in the sky in the very beginning—the sun, the moon and the stars (see also Isaiah 13:10; 34:4). Into this "uncreated" darkness, the Son of Man, in whom all things were made, will come.

Jesus has already told us that the Son of Man must be humiliated and killed (see Mark 8:31). Here He describes His ultimate victory, using royal-divine images drawn from the Old Testament—clouds, glory, and angels (see Daniel 7:13). He shows Himself to be the fulfillment of all God's promises to save "the elect," the faithful remnant (see Isaiah 43:6; Jeremiah 32:37).

As today's First Reading tells us, this salvation will include the bodily resurrection of those who sleep in the dust.

We are to watch for this day, when His enemies are finally made His footstool, as today's Epistle envisions. We can wait in confidence knowing, as we pray in today's Psalm, that we will one day delight at His right hand forever.
