Religious Education

This Wednesday from 6:30- 7:30pm we will be studying the Sacrament of Confession. All are invited to join in. We will be looking at the history and practice of the Sacrament over the years, and the grace filled event that it is. Please join us!

Valentine Thank You

Thank you to all who helped bake, assemble, and deliver the Valentine cookie packages this week.

Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Blessed are you when people hate you, ... exclude and insult you, and denounce your name ... on account of the Son of Man." (LUKE 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

St. Mary's

Hello Religious Education Families,

We are currently looking for help with our Wednesday evening meals. If you are able to assist please reach out!

A friendly reminder to sign and return your student's code of conduct for Circle of Grace.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Happy Valentine's Day

LET THERE BE LIGHT! is the theme of this year's Diocesan Annual Appeal. With the arrival of Most Reverend Andrew Cozzens and the anticipation we are feeling at moving into a new pastoral center within the next year, we have much to be joyful about! There is so much hope going forth, a new bishop, The Perfect Fit campaign, so much evangelization going on, prayerful liturgies throughout the diocese, youth camps, a growing foundation, we have a very bright future to look forward to. Please be generous in supporting our bright future! You will receive a mailing in your home, you can fill out the in-pew envelope here in the parish or make a gift online by going to www.crookston.org/DAA by using the QR code below.

Rich in Poverty: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Jeremiah 17:5–8

Psalm 1:1–4, 6

1 Corinthians 15:12, 16–20

Luke 6:17, 20–26

The blessings and woes we hear in today’s Gospel mark the perfection of all the wisdom of the Old Testament.

That wisdom is summed up with marvelous symmetry in today’s First Reading and Psalm: Each declares that the righteous—those who hope in the Lord and delight in His Law—will prosper like a tree planted near living waters. The wicked, who put their “trust in human beings,” are cursed to wither and die.

Jesus is saying the same thing in the Gospel. The rich and poor are, for Him, more than members of literal economic classes. Their material state symbolizes their spiritual state.

The rich are “the insolent” of today’s Psalm, boasting of their self-sufficiency, the strength of their flesh, as Jeremiah says in the First Reading. The poor are the humble, who put all their hope and trust in the Lord.

We’ve already seen today’s dramatic imagery of reversal in Mary’s Magnificat. There, too, the rich are cast down while the hungry are filled and the lowly exalted (see Luke 1:45–55, also 16:19–31).

That’s the upside-down world of the Gospel: in poverty, we gain spiritual treasure unimaginable; in suffering and even dying “on account of the Son of Man,” we find everlasting life.

The promises of the Old Testament were promises of power and prosperity—in the here and now. The promise of the New Covenant is joy and true freedom even amid the misery and toil of this life.

But not only that. As Paul says in today’s Epistle, we’re to be pitied if our hope is “for this life only.”

The blessings of God mean that we’ll laugh with the thanksgiving of captives released from exile (see Psalm 126:1–2), feast at the heavenly table of the Lord (see Psalm 107:3–9), “leap for joy” as John the Baptist leapt in his mother’s womb (see Luke 6:23; 1:41, 44), and rise with Christ, “the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.”
