Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back...” (LUKE 6:35)
Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

St. Mary's

Hello Religious Education Families,

Circle of Grace is wrapping up and we have had such wonderful conversations with your students about God's love, His desires for us and boundaries in all areas of life! Please remember to discuss Circle of Grace at home with your students.

 On March 2nd, Ash Wednesday, there will be NO Religious Education classes but Mass for all at 7:00. *****

 First Reconciliation has been moved to March 30th during Religious Education**

We are excited to share that we will be having a family mealtime from 5:30-6:30, Wednesday, February 23rd. Thank you to Tom and Cyd Amiot who have offered to help us with this!

Ham bingo with the Knights of Columbus will take place on Saturday, April 9th at 7:30 following Mass. We are looking for student volunteers to assist with concessions. Community service hours will be available for their help!

Please look at the new Religious Education section on bulletin board when dropping off or picking up students. We will be sharing information and upcoming events here as well!

~ Ashley

All three Parishes

Today is the beginning of the 2022 Diocesan Annual Appeal (DAA). Our theme is LET THERE BE LIGHT! The overall DAA goal has been set at $910,000. This goal is shared and pro-rated among our 66 parishes based on the prior year's offertory and the number of donors who offer more than $50 per year to their parish. Our parish goals for 2022 are, St. Mary's: $13,411, Sacred Heart: $7,748, St. Joseph's, $2,597. These funds pay for the office of formation in discipleship, worship, seminarians and vocations, the Tribunal, safe environment, the office of catholic schools, the office of the bishop, general administration and communications, ministries that affect our parish family in so many ways! Check out the mailing you have received at home or visit online at www.crookston.org/DAA for additional information about all the good you do when you support the DAA. You can donate securely and simply at the same location. Go to the website by scanning the QR code below. Please be generous and be part of the light!

Dauids and Sauls: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

Psalm 103:1-13

1 Corinthians 15:45-49

Luke 6:27-38

The story of David and Saul in today's First Reading functions almost like a parable. Showing mercy to his deadly foe, David gives a concrete example of what Jesus expects to become a way of life for His disciples.

The new law Jesus gives in today's Gospel would have us all become "Davids"—loving our enemies, doing good to those who would harm us, extending a line of credit to those who won't ever repay us.

The Old Law required only that the Israelites love their fellow countrymen (see Leviticus 19:18). The new law Jesus brings makes us kin to every man and woman (see also Luke 10:29-36). His kingdom isn't one of tribe or nationality. It's a family. As followers of Jesus, we're to live as He lived among us—as "children of the Most High" (see Luke 6:35; 1:35).

As sons and daughters, we want to walk in the ways of our heavenly Father, to "be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." Grateful for His mercy, we're called to forgive others their trespasses because God has forgiven ours.

In the context of today's liturgy, we're all "Sauls"—by our sinfulness and pride we make ourselves enemies of God. But we've been spared a death we surely deserved to die because God has loved and shown mercy to His enemies, "the ungrateful and the wicked," as Jesus says.

Jesus showed us this love in His Passion, forgiving His enemies as they stripped Him of cloak and tunic, cursed Him and struck Him on the cheek, condemned Him to death on a cross (see Luke 22:63-65; 23:34). "He redeems your life from destruction," David reminds us in today's Psalm.

That's the promise, too, of today's Epistle: that we who believe in the "last Adam," Jesus, will rise from the dead in His image, as today we bear the image of the "first Adam," who by his sin made God an enemy and brought death into the world (see 1 Corinthians 15:21-22).
