3rd Sunday of Lent

“...He said to the gardener, ‘For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.’” (LUKE 13:7)
We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of our gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.

St. Mary's

Hello Religious Education Families,

The season of Lent has begun! Please remind your kiddos the importance of prayer, fasting (not just from food, but the act of giving something up) and almsgiving! A big thank you to Tom and Cyd for taking over meal time tasks! If you are able to help with any sort of donation, food or time, please let me know! We are also still looking for student volunteers for Ham Bingo by the Knights of Columbus on April 9th! Community service hours will be given.
Thank You,
Ashley

Fruits of the Fig: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Third Sunday of Lent

Readings:

Exodus 3:1-8, 13-15
Psalm 103:1-4, 6-8, 11
1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12
Luke 13:1-9

In the Church, we are made children of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God who makes known His name and His ways to Moses in today’s First Reading.

Mindful of His covenant with Abraham (see Exodus 2:24), God came down to rescue His people from the slave drivers of Egypt. Faithful to that same covenant (see Luke 1:54-55, 72-73), He sent Jesus to redeem all lives from destruction, as today’s Psalm tells us.

Paul says in today’s Epistle that God’s saving deeds in the Exodus were written down for the Church, intended as a prelude and foreshadowing of our own Baptism by water, our liberation from sin, our feeding with spiritual food and drink.

Yet the events of the Exodus were also given as a “warning”—that being children of Abraham is no guarantee that we will reach the promised land of our salvation.

At any moment, Jesus warns in today’s Gospel, we could perish, not as God’s punishment for being “greater sinners” but because, like the Israelites in the wilderness, we stumble into evil desires, fall into grumbling, forget all His benefits.

Jesus calls us today to “repentance”—not a one-time change of heart, but an ongoing, daily transformation of our lives. We’re called to live the life we sing about in today’s Psalm, blessing His holy name, giving thanks for His kindness and mercy.

The fig tree in His parable is a familiar Old Testament symbol for Israel (see Jeremiah 8:3; 24:1-10). As the fig tree is given one last season to produce fruit before it is cut down, so too Jesus is giving Israel one final opportunity to bear good fruits as evidence of its repentance (see Luke 3:8).

Lent should be for us like the season of reprieve given to the fig tree, a grace period in which we let “the gardener,” Christ, cultivate our hearts, uprooting what chokes the divine life in us, strengthening us to bear fruits that will last into eternity.

Consecration of Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Friday, March 25th

In light of the tragic war in Ukraine, Our Holy Father, Pope Francis will consecrate Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Friday, March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation of the Lord at 5pm in Rome at a special service penance service. He has asked the Bishops, Priests and faithful of the world to join him in this act of consecration. Bishop Cozzens will lead the Diocese of Crookston in an Act of Consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary with Mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Friday, March 25 at 11: 00 am. All are invited to attend.

On that day, Fr. Andrew will celebrate the 6 pm Mass at St. Mary's Church, Warroad when he will celebrate this consecration.

All are welcome.
