4th Sunday of Lent

“No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.” (JOSHUA 5:12) Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God’s blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

St. Mary’s

Hello Religious Education Families,
Our jar is filling quickly of good deeds. Please continue to remind your children the importance of prayer, fasting (not just from food, but the act of giving something up) and almsgiving!

shout Out to our Students,
We are still looking for student volunteers for Ham Bingo by the Knights of Columbus on April 9th! Community service hours will be given.

Thank You, Ashley

St. Mary's Youth

Hello fellow parishioners, we are going to try to keep you updated on our Parish Students. If you know of some awesomeness a parish student has done that you wish to share, please give Terrie Lynn or Ashley a call or send a text, we wish to recognize these youngster’s accomplishments.

Found Alive Again: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Readings:

Joshua 5:9–12
Psalm 34:2–7
2 Corinthians 5:17–21
Luke 15:1–3, 11–32

In today's First Reading, God forgives "the reproach" of the generations who grumbled against Him after the Exodus. On the threshold of the promised land, Israel can with a clean heart celebrate the Passover, the feast of God's firstborn son (see Joshua 5:6–7; Exodus 4:22; 12:12–13).

Reconciliation is also at the heart of the story Jesus tells in today's Gospel. The story of the Prodigal Son is the story of Israel and of the human race. But it is also the story of every believer.

In Baptism, we're given a divine birthright, made "a new creation," as Paul puts it in today's Epistle. But when we sin, we're like the Prodigal Son, quitting our Father's house, squandering our inheritance in trying to live without Him.

Lost in sin, we cut ourselves off from the grace of sonship lavished upon us in Baptism. It is still possible for us to come to our senses, make our way back to the Father, as the prodigal does.

But only He can remove the reproach and restore the divine sonship we have spurned. Only He can free us from the slavery to sin that causes us—like the Prodigal Son—to see God not as our Father but as our master, One we serve as slaves.

God wants not slaves but children. Like the father in today's Gospel, He longs to call each of us "My son," to share His life with us, to tell us: "Everything I have is yours."

The Father's words of longing and compassion still come to His prodigal children in the Sacrament of Penance. This is part of what Paul today calls "the ministry of reconciliation" entrusted by Jesus to the Apostles and the Church.

Reconciled like Israel, we take our place at the table of the Eucharist, the homecoming banquet the Father calls for His lost sons, the new Passover we celebrate this side of heaven. We taste the goodness of the Lord, as we sing in today's

Consecration of Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Friday, March 25th

In light of the tragic war in Ukraine, Our Holy Father, Pope Francis will consecrate Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Friday, March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation of the Lord at 5pm in Rome at a special service penance service. He has asked the Bishops, Priests and faithful of the world to join him in this act of consecration. Bishop Cozzens will lead the Diocese of Crookston in an Act of Consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary with Mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Friday, March 25 at 11: 00 am. All are invited to attend.

On that day, Fr. Andrew will celebrate the 6 pm Mass at St. Mary's Church, Warroad when he will celebrate this consecration.

All are welcome.
