Beginning this Sunday

Let's learn together!

I mentioned earlier that we have a great resource available to us in the Formed program. We will view "The Search" from Augustine Institute. We will be meeting every 1st and 3rd Sunday in the basement of Sacred Heart from 4:00-5:00pm, beginning October 16th. This will be an opportunity for all of us from age 11 to 111 to continue to learn more about our relationship with God and His Church. Years ago, we had an 83 year old man in our confirmation class each week. When he was asked why he attended the class, he said that he still needed to continue learning about his faith! This was a great testament for all of us. Anyone from all three parishes is invited to attend. Thanks, Deacon Jim

Sacred Heart will be praying the rosary before mass. The rosary will take place at 10:00am each Sunday prior to the 10:30 mass. All are highly encouraged to attend this important devotion to our Blessed Mother. Anyone wanting to help with this devotion please contact Kevin Scharfenkamp at kevinschar@aol.com or (951) 764-4172.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...” 2 Timothy 4:2
It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

Special Collection to Assist Hurricane Victims

In response to recent hurricanes and their aftermath in the southern United States, Bishop Andrew Cozzens supports a special collection in the Diocese of Crookston parishes the weekend of October 15/16 OR October 22/23.

Funds collected will become part of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops “Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund” and will be used to support the efforts for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church and Catholic Charities USA/Catholic Relief Services, the official relief agencies of the U.S. Catholic Church, as they and their local agencies/partners respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. Funds will be used in response to hurricanes, subsequent tornados and flooding, and any other disasters that occur and will be distributed where they are most needed.

Mercy Hour

The Diocese of Crookston has planned several Eucharistic Healing Services for marriages and families called “Mercy Hour” which are scheduled all around the diocese beginning this fall and going through the winter months. There will be exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a talk given by Bishop Andrew Cozzens, prayers and intercessions, music, and prayer stations that all culminate in an intimate moment of a Eucharistic encounter offered for individuals, couples, and families. Please be informed that everyone has a place in this experience in the Diocese of Crookston.

Mercy Hour Dates and Locations:

SUNDAY, Oct 16, 2022--3 pm at St. Francis de Sales, Moorhead
SUNDAY, Oct 30, 2022--3 pm at St. Philip's Church, Bemidji
SUNDAY, Feb 5, 2023--3 pm at Sacred Heart, Roseau
SUNDAY, Feb 12, 2023-- 3 pm at Holy Rosary, Detroit Lakes
THURSDAY, March 9, 2023--7 pm at Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Crookston

Suffering and Transformation

Catholics have an interesting view of suffering. We believe that we can transform it into something of value for the benefit of others. Again referencing Bishop Cozzens' article on the Spiritual Life (www.eucharisticrevival.org), he reminds us that "There is nothing I cannot transform into an act of love. This is the fundamental catechesis of the Eucharist that is meant to teach me how to live. As Vatican II said, through the Eucharist all 'are thus invited and encouraged to offer themselves, their labors and all created things, together with him' (Presbyterorum Ordinis, 5)."

"This teaching has the power to transform our whole lives - this is what the Eucharist wants to do. If I understand this teaching, even my most difficult sufferings can become a joy! Why? Because they are not empty and meaningless, just as Christ's suffering was not empty and meaningless. All my sufferings can be brought here to the altar and laid upon it. Here they take on an infinite value."

This is starting to make sense, even though it goes against everything our modern culture says is true. Wait, is that why some people say Jesus was counter-cultural?

Men's Cursillos

Would you like to deepen your faith and let Jesus become more involved in your life? Let the Spirit lead you on a Cursillo. The Diocese of Crookston is offering a Men's Cursillo on the weekend of October 27-30, 2022 at Mount St. Benedict in Crookston. Applications are available at <https://crookstoncursillo.weebly.com/>.

If you have any questions, please let us know or contact Brandy Pelzel at pelzel40@hotmail.com, Len Vonasek at lvonasek@sacredheartegf.net, or Fr. Bill DeCrans in Bemidji. Thank you.

Hope from on High: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:
Exodus 17:8-13
Psalm 121:1-8
2 Timothy 3:14-4:2
Luke 18:1-8

The Lord is our guardian, beside us at our right hand, interceding for us in all our spiritual battles.

In today's Psalm we're told to lift our eyes to the mountains, that our help will come from Mount Zion and the Temple—the dwelling of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Joshua and the Israelites, in today's First Reading, are also told to look to the hilltops. They are to find their help there—through the intercession of Moses—as they defend themselves against their mortal foes, the Amalekites.

Notice the image: Aaron and Hur standing on each side of Moses, holding his weary arms so that he can raise the staff of God above his head. Moses is being shown here as a figure of Jesus, who also climbed a hilltop, and on Mount Calvary stretched out His hands between heaven and earth to intercede for us against the final enemy—sin and death (see 1 Corinthians 15:26).

By the staff of God, Moses bested Israel's enemies (see Exodus 7:8–12; 8:1–2), parted the Red Sea (see Exodus 14:16) and brought water from the Rock (see Exodus 17:6).

The Cross of Jesus is the new staff of God, bringing about a new liberation from sin, bringing forth living waters from the body of Christ, the new Temple of God (see John 2:19–21; 7:37–39; 19:34; 1 Corinthians 10:4).

Like the Israelites and the widow in today's Gospel, we face opposition and injustice—at times from godless and pitiless adversaries.

We, too, must lift our eyes to the mountains—to Calvary and the God who will guard us from all evil.

We must pray always and not be wearied by our trials, Jesus tells us today. As Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we need to remain faithful, to turn to the inspired Scriptures—given by God to train us in righteousness.

St. Mary's Religious Education

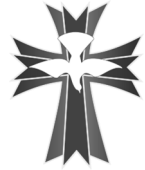

REMINDER: There is no Religious Education classes on Wed, Oct 19th due to MEA/Fall break.

Next class is Oct 26th.

Circle of Grace training for K-12th will be held during classes Oct. 12th & Oct. 26th. If parents wish not to have their child participate, please contact Tammi.

Confirmation Mass

We changed the time for Confirmation Mass on Sunday May 7th to 1:30PM (versus 8:30AM) due to Prom being held the night before. There will still be a regular Mass at 8:30AM as well. Confirmands need to arrive by 12:30pm to meet with Bishop prior to go time.

Family Faith Night

November 2nd

from 6pm -8pm

We will begin with Mass, followed by light meal; and then Bingo brought to you by our Knight's of Columbus.

We encourage all Faith Formation Families to take advantage of the great opportunity to attend Wed. Rel. Ed Meals with their children from 5:30 pm to 6:15 pm. This is a wonderful way to get to know other Parish families and not have to cook a meal.

Thank you to our Volunteers for your time put towards our parish students in helping guide them on their Journey.

Have You Heard?

WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF A NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL!

The Church needs healing, and the world needs Jesus. The Holy Spirit is inviting us to return to the source and summit of our faith—the Eucharist.
