Let's learn together!

I mentioned earlier that we have a great resource available to us in the Formed program. We will view "The Search" from Augustine Institute. We will be meeting every 1st and 3rd Sunday in the basement of Sacred Heart from 4:00-5:00pm, beginning October 16th. This will be an opportunity for all of us from age 11 to 111 to continue to learn more about our relationship with God and His Church. Years ago, we had an 83 year old man in our confirmation class each week. When he was asked why he attended the class, he said that he still needed to continue learning about his faith! This was a great testament for all of us. Anyone from all three parishes is invited to attend.

Thanks,
Deacon Jim

Sacred Heart will recommence the practice of praying the rosary before mass. The rosary will take place at 10:00am each Sunday prior to the 10:30 mass. All are highly encouraged to attend this important devotion to our Blessed Mother. Anyone wanting to help with this devotion please contact Kevin Scharfenkamp at kevinchar@aol.com or (951) 764-4172.

Happy Birthday!

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Luke 17:18
Most of us live relatively “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, clothing and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

The "S" Word

There is so much to be learned from Bishop Cozzens' article The Spiritual Life: How the Eucharist Catechizes about the Meaning of Life (www.eucharisticrevival.org) that we have spent several weeks unpacking it. If you haven't yet looked it up, you should.

So, we have come to the "S" word...suffering. It's not something we in western culture like to think about. Because we want to avoid it at all costs, we have developed every drug and technology possible to help us avoid it. Maybe we need to ask ourselves why we're trying so hard to avoid something so natural.

Maybe there's a higher purpose in suffering. We all suffer. There's illness. There's loss. Most of it is out of our control. None of it makes any sense. You've no doubt heard that many of the saints embraced their suffering; they offered it up, uniting it with Christ's suffering on the cross. St. Paul mentioned praying to have the thorn in his side removed (II Corinthians 12). Jesus prayed that, if possible, the cup might pass him by (Matthew 26:39). If God didn't answer those prayers, why not?

Mercy Hour

The Diocese of Crookston has planned several Eucharistic Healing Services for marriages and families called “Mercy Hour” which are scheduled all around the diocese beginning this fall and going through the winter months. There will be exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a talk given by Bishop Andrew Cozzens, prayers and intercessions, music, and prayer stations that all culminate in an intimate moment of a Eucharistic encounter offered for individuals, couples, and families. Please be informed that everyone has a place in this experience in the Diocese of Crookston.

Readings:

2 Kings 5:14-17

Psalm 98:1-4

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Luke 17:11-19

A foreign leper is cleansed and in thanksgiving returns to offer homage to the God of Israel. We hear this same story in both the First Reading and Gospel today.

There were many lepers in Israel in Elisha's time, but only Naaman the Syrian trusted in God's Word and was cleansed (see Luke 5:12-14). Today's Gospel likewise implies that most of the ten lepers healed by Jesus were Israelites—but only a foreigner, the Samaritan, returned.

In a dramatic way, we're being shown today how faith has been made the way to salvation, the road by which all nations will join themselves to the Lord, becoming His servants, gathered with the Israelites into one chosen people of God, the Church (see Isaiah 56:3-8).

Today's Psalm also looks forward to the day when all peoples will see what Naaman sees—that there is no God in all the earth except the God of Israel.

We see this day arriving in today's Gospel. The Samaritan leper is the only person in the New Testament who personally thanks Jesus. The Greek word used to describe his "giving thanks" is the word we translate as "Eucharist."

And these lepers today reveal to us the inner dimensions of the Eucharist and sacramental life.

We, too have been healed by our faith in Jesus. As Naaman's flesh is made again like that of a little child, our souls have been cleansed of sin in the waters of Baptism. We experience this cleansing again and again in the Sacrament of Penance—as we repent our sins, beg and receive mercy from our Master, Jesus.

We return to glorify God in each Mass, to offer ourselves in sacrifice—falling on our knees before our Lord, giving thanks for our salvation.

In this Eucharist, we remember "Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David," Israel's covenant king. And we pray, as Paul does in today's Epistle, to persevere in this faith—that we too may live and reign with Him in eternal glory.
