1st Sunday of Advent

“Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.” Matthew 24:42
People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God’s active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day, for all that we have been given.

Christmas Flower Memorials

Honor a loved one and help decorate the Church at the same time.

Clearly label an envelope, “Christmas Flower donation” place your donation and the names (clearly printed) of whom you wish to be honored or remembered then submit to Parish Office.
Names will be printed in Bulletin for Christmas Mass.

The Kerygma

Long before social media, messengers called heralds brought breaking news to outlying communities. The messages, called kerygma, were official statements of fact that had importance and an impact upon the lives of the people receiving them. They came from an authority greater than that of the herald and they were not up for debate. The Gospels are our kerygma.

Today we've lost the sense of what kerygma is. In our culture truth is left up to us to determine. Relativism tells us that my truth is mine, and yours may be different. Not only that, but we're told we need to support one another in whatever truth we choose. Don't buy it. There is one Truth, and His name is Jesus Christ. He has given us the kerygma and chosen every one of us to be heralds of this message. He calls us to reach out to those who are lost and struggling and give them His message of love by living as He lived. Today's t-shirt messages about being kind are trendy. The kindness and gentleness of Christ fit this trend. But the power, authority and seriousness of Christ's kerygma are beyond trendiness. They are truly at the heart of what it means to be Catholic.

Christmas Giving Tree

St. Mary's is doing a Christmas Giving Tree project again this year. The recipients will be the children who are involved in the Backpack Program at Warroad Elementary School. If you would like to donate, please take a gift tag ornament, with the child's grade and gender listed off the tree in the gathering space, purchase a gift, wrap it, and secure the tag on the gift with the grade and gender visible. Please have your gift to St. Mary's by Sunday December 19th, so we are able to distribute them to the school children before Christmas break. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Christmas Tree Decorating
Sunday Dec. 18 after 8:30 a.m. mass. All parish members are invited to help decorate our parish Christmas tree in the gathering space and other decorating. Donuts & coffee & juice will be served. All help is appreciated.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

In a Dark Hour: Scott Hahn Reflects on the First Sunday in Advent

Readings:

Isaiah 2:1-5

Psalm 122:1-9

Romans 13:11-14

Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus exaggerates in today's Gospel when He claims not to know the day or the hour when He will come again. Christ occasionally makes such overstatements to drive home a point we might otherwise miss (see Matthew 5:34; 23:9; Luke 14:26).

His point here is that the exact "hour" is not important. What is crucial is that we not postpone our repentance, that we be ready for Him—spiritually and morally—when He comes. For He will surely come, He tells us—like a thief in the night, like the flood in the time of Noah.

In today's Epistle, Paul too compares the present age to a time of advancing darkness and night.

Though we sit in the darkness, overshadowed by death, we have seen arise the great light of our Lord who has come into our midst (see Matthew 4:16; John 1:9; 8:12). He is the true light, the life of the world. And His light continues to shine in His Church, the new Jerusalem promised by Isaiah in today's First Reading.

In the Church, all nations stream to the God of Jacob, to worship and seek wisdom in the House of David. From the Church goes forth His word of instruction, the light of the Lord—that all might walk in His paths toward that eternal day when night will be no more (see Revelation 22:5).

By our Baptism we have been made children of the light and day (see Ephesians 5:8; 1 Thessalonians 5:5-7). It is time we start living like it: throwing off the fruitless works of darkness, rejecting the desires of the flesh, and walking by the light of His grace.

The hour is late as we begin a new Advent. Let us begin again in this Eucharist.

As we sing in today's Psalm, "let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord." Let us give thanks to His name, keeping watch for His coming, knowing that our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

Thanksgiving is a time to reflect on all what we are grateful for in our lives. While we could fill up this entire page, we would like to share a few “Thankful Shout Outs” -- To all the Religious Education Teachers for dedicating time to teach our children about our Faith and to help them create a relationship with Jesus!! To our kitchen crew, those that prepare the meals, bake the cookies, serve and clean up and refill our water glasses, you all are so clever with the meal, the décor, and amazing cookies. For those leading the choir in preparation for Christmas Eve Mass and the music during Youth Mass – such God given talent – thank you for sharing with us. And thank you to all the students and their families who supported the RE program through great attendance and participation during Mass and Family Fun Nights. And lastly, to the entire parish – for supporting our program as volunteers, the Knights, and prayer warriors. We appreciate you. Blessing for a Wonderful Thanksgiving.

Do you have a winning chili recipe? Do you like competitions? Then we need you for our Chili Cook-Off on Wednesday, Dec 21st during our 5:30-6:15 Religious Education Meal Period. We will buy the hamburger; we just need you to add the spice (and maybe some other fun ingredients). Students and families will vote, and the winner will get bragging rights. If you're interested, please let Tammi know by December 5th. We usually feed approximately 110 kids/parents. We will also have cinnamon rolls and veggies.

We are preparing for the Youth Christmas Eve Mass scheduled for December 24th, at 4:30pm. All students are invited to sing in the youth choir which practices on Wednesday during RE at 5:10-5:30. We hope families can attend this Mass celebration.

Children's Sunday Liturgy will be offered most Sundays unless there is a Youth Mass or school is on break. PreK through 7 years old are invited to join Solveig Harren during the Liturgy of the Word.

Baking Opportunity

Invitation for children in 2nd—4th grade, to bake cookies with a dozen or so of our Life Enriched parish members. The date will be Sunday, December 4th from 1 pm – 4 pm in the Fellowship Hall at St. Mary's.

This is an opportunity to blend rich tradition with youthful imagination. Limited space is available, so please sign up quickly with Tammi or Terrie Lynn via email or in person.

Applauds to our Youth Ministry during last Sunday's Mass. This time we were led by the 3rd and 4th grade students. Everyone did such a great job singing as well. Our ushers and readers: Elsie Belle Olson, Kelsey Stoskopf, Aibree Larson, Thatcher Gustafson, Jocelynn Thunder, Brylee Canfield, and Adley Marvin.

Confirmation Prayer Partners

At St. Mary's we are hoping to have 14 young adults confirmed in May. We are seeking “Prayer Partners” for each of them. The prayer partner will be paired with a student and keep that student in prayer as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. If you are interested or have questions, please call, or text message Louise Dignan at 218.469.4902 or leave a message at St. Mary's. And of course, all parishioners are encouraged to keep our students in our prayers.
