2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...”Isaiah 49:5
God has given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

Bishop Cozzens

On the weekend of January 21-22, Bishop Andrew Cozzens will be celebrating Mass at St Mary's, Saturday at 5pm, and Sacred Heart Sunday at 10:30. Bishop Andrew has made a great effort to visit every parish in the diocese in his first year as our shepherd. Please welcome him to our parishes, and take the time to greet him.

Is it fitting that Christ's Body and Blood become present in the Eucharist under the appearances of bread and wine?

Yes, for this way of being present corresponds perfectly to the sacramental celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus Christ gives himself to us in a form that employs the symbolism inherent in eating bread and drinking wine. Furthermore, being present under the appearances of bread and wine, Christ gives himself to us in a form that is appropriate for human eating and drinking. Also, this kind of presence corresponds to the virtue of faith, for the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be detected or discerned by any way other than faith. That is why St. Bonaventure affirmed: "There is no difficulty over Christ's being present in the sacrament as in a sign; the great difficulty is in the fact that He is really in the sacrament, as He is in heaven. And so believing this is especially meritorious" (In IV Sent., dist. X, P. I, art. un., qu. I). On the authority of God who reveals himself to us, by faith we believe that which cannot be grasped by our human faculties (cf. Catechism, no. 1381).

The Warroad Early Learners Center (preschool) is looking for snow pants sizes 4-7 for children that come to school with no warm clothing or need to borrow a pair during the day at recess. If you happen to have extra warm attire of these sizes to donate, please drop off at Warroad school elementary office with Tammy.

Fr. Andrew will be away from the office from Jan. 11th to Jan. 20th. If you have an emergency please contact Fr. John at 218-686-5029 or 218-463-2441

Please Welcome Rev. Bernard Schneider for this weekend Masses while Father Andrew is away.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

Perfect Offering: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

Psalm 40:2, 4, 7-10

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

John 1:29-34

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading.

He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "You are My servant,' He said to Me."

Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus—to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (see Acts 13:46-47).

Before the first exodus, a lamb was offered in sacrifice and its blood painted on the Israelites' door posts. The blood of the lamb identified their homes and the Lord "passed over" these in executing judgment on the Egyptians (see Exodus 12:1-23, 27).

In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3-13).

The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin-offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice—that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will.

Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of Himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience and made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies—our lives—as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).

St. Mary's Religious Education

Please mark your calendar:

January 18th: 6pm – 8pm – Family Faith Night. (Mass, Meal “Breakfast for Dinner” by the KoC, Games)

January 22nd 8:30am – Sunday Youth Mass Led by 9th – 10th grades

Family Faith Night

Please join us for Family Faith Night, presented by our 11th & 12th grade Students. Lots of games, fun, prizes and food.

6pm –8pm Wednesday, Jan 18th!!!

Family Faith Night

In preparation for our next Family Faith Night we are asking for donations we can use for game prizes. We are requesting “White Elephant” type donations – something you have at home you no longer want but too nice to just toss but would make a fun prize for games. There is a box in the entryway. Thank you to those who have already donated.

Reminder for Confirmation Candidates, please turn in your Sponsor Information sheet to either Lynn Erickson or Tammi Moes by January 25th.

Thank you to those who volunteered to help the Knights of Columbus last Wednesday with the Basketball Free throw, your help was appreciated.

Children’s Sunday Liturgy will be offered most Sundays unless there is a Youth Mass or school is on break. PreK through 7 years old are invited to join Solveig Harren during the Liturgy of the Word.

Please Help

We are still looking for an additional volunteer to co-teach 7th & 8th grade Religious Education in the New Year. If you wouldn’t mind offering about 2 hours a week for this rewarding opportunity, please contact Tammi. You will need to take the Safe Environment training online. Thank you for considering.
